DESCRIPTION

Idyllically situated between the Côte de Granite Rose and the Côte Sauvage, Locquirec is one of Brittany's best preserved port villages. There you will find the Grand Hôtel des Bains, a stylish, classic hotel, with all the comforts of a modern renovation programme. Our elegant rooms are decorated in a New England style, echoing the calm and restful colours of the beautiful maritime scenery that surrounds us. The majority of our rooms have a view directly onto the sea and our private garden, and most have either a balcony or a large private terrace..

PRIVILEGED LOCATION

A stylish, family-run, boutique hotel specialising in understated luxury, relaxation and spa treatments.

A world away from crowds, noise and pollution, the hotel stands on a small peninsula with stunning sea views. The hotel is located in the tranquil and picturesque fishing town of Locquirec, bordering on the Finistère and Cote d'Armor regions of Brittany. This coast is amongst the most beautiful and unspoilt in France, boasting a string of long, sweeping sandy beaches.

Excellence of service and delicious food combine with the inspiring location, salt water swimming pool (heated all year) and spa to provide an utterly peaceful atmosphere and an unforgettable holiday year round.

ROOMS AND SUITES

OUR ROOMS

The hotel was built at the beginning of the 20th century, and its beautiful grounds and private beach were the setting of the famous French comedy: "L'Hotel de la Plage". Dominique van Lier, the current owner introduced the classic New England décor which has been featured in a number of French style magazines.

The view of the sea from the bedrooms, restaurant and the hotel park constantly changes with the tide, light, weather and seasons, but is always enchanting. The spacious terrace is a perfect place to watch the boats exploring Locquirec bay. At high tide the sea laps the lime tree alley in the garden, and at low tide the rocks appear and it is possible to cross the bay by foot.

Rooms with a view

The hotel's bedrooms all have private bathrooms and plasma televisions, and most have a mesmerising sea view. All the sea view first floor rooms have large terraces and the sea view second floor rooms have balconies. The hotel has wi-fi access throughout, including in the bedrooms and garden.

All our bedrooms are non-smoking.
